There is a way back home!

Read the whole story, and hear it read aloud, in many languages.

GIVEN TO YOU BY

Questions? Talk with a pastor or a Christian you trust.

Free gift, not for sale · © 2026 Johnny Wall

Would you like to follow Jesus?

Here is what it means:

- A Admit to God that you have sinned, and say you are sorry.
- B Believe that Jesus is God's Son, that He died for you, and that He rose again.
- C Choose to trust Jesus and follow Him every day.

You can pray like this:

"Dear God, I know I have sinned, and I am sorry. Thank You for sending Jesus to die for me and rise again. Please forgive me and make me clean. I want to follow You. In Jesus' name, amen."

If you prayed this, tell someone who follows Jesus. Start reading the Bible (the Gospel of John is a good place to begin) and find a church that teaches it.

Romans 10:9–10

13

God will make everything new: a new heaven and a new earth, with no more death, pain or tears. Until that day, Jesus sends everyone who follows Him to tell others, so they can find the way back home too.

Revelation 21:1–5; Matthew 28:19–20

← How to follow Jesus

The Way Back Home

A true story from the Bible

Genesis 1:27, 31; 2:8

1

In the beginning, God created everything, and it was very good. He made the first people, Adam and Eve, in His own image, to know Him and to live with Him. God was with them in their garden home.

Genesis 1:27, 31; 2:8

2

God gave them every tree in the garden to enjoy except one. "Do not eat from that tree," He said. "If you do, you will die." It was one simple command from a Father who loved them, and a real choice to trust Him.

Genesis 2:16–17

3

The serpent lied: "You won't die! You'll be like God!" Eve believed him and ate the fruit, and Adam ate it too. They chose their own way instead of God's. The Bible calls this sin.

Genesis 3:1–6

4

Sin broke everything. Adam and Eve hid in shame, and animals had to die to cover them. They were sent out of the garden, away from God. But God promised that Someone would come to crush the serpent and open the way back home.

Genesis 3:15, 21–24

Unfold to keep reading ↓

5

Every one of us has sinned, just like Adam and Eve. Have you ever lied? Taken what wasn't yours? Hated someone in your heart? God's law is like a mirror: it shows us that we have all broken it.

Romans 3:23; Exodus 20; Matthew 5:21–22

6

God is holy and just. He cannot ignore sin or pretend it never happened. The Bible says the penalty for sin is death, and after death comes judgment. If we die in our sin, we will be separated from God forever in hell.

Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27

7

We can't fix this ourselves. Trying harder, saying sorry or going to church can't wash sin away. Our good deeds can never cancel out the wrong we have done. Someone has to pay what we owe. But who?

Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:8–9

8

Here is the good news! God loved the world so much that He sent His Son, Jesus, the One He promised in the garden. Jesus said, "I am the door. Whoever comes in through Me will be saved."

John 3:16; John 10:9

9

Jesus never sinned, not even once. Yet He died on a cross in our place. All our sin was put on Him, and He took the punishment we deserved.

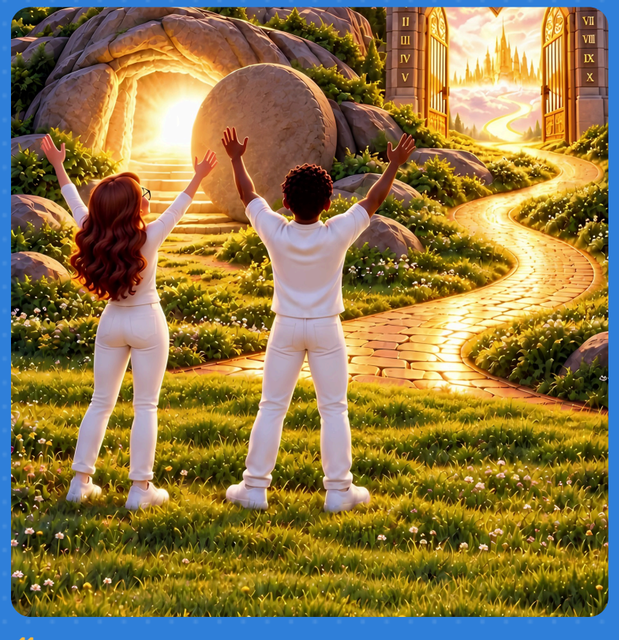

Isaiah 53:6; 2 Corinthians 5:21; 1 Peter 2:24

10

Now everyone has a choice. Some say "No thanks" and walk away. But when we turn from our sin and trust Jesus, God forgives us completely. He takes our sin away and covers us with Jesus' perfect goodness.

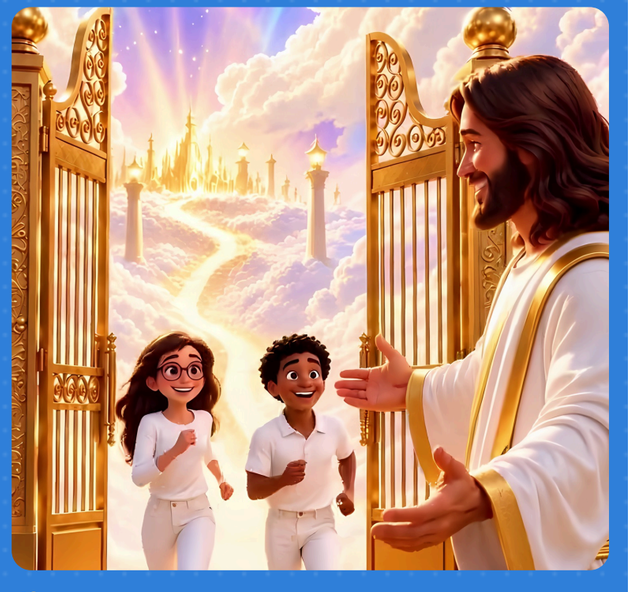

Mark 1:15; Romans 10:9, 13; Isaiah 1:18

11

Three days after Jesus died, His tomb was empty. He had risen from the dead! Jesus defeated sin and death, and He is alive today. The way back home is open.

1 Corinthians 15:3–4

12

One day, everyone who trusts Jesus will run through heaven's open gates. And Jesus Himself will be there to welcome them home, with His arms open wide.

John 14:2–3

Turn over to keep reading →